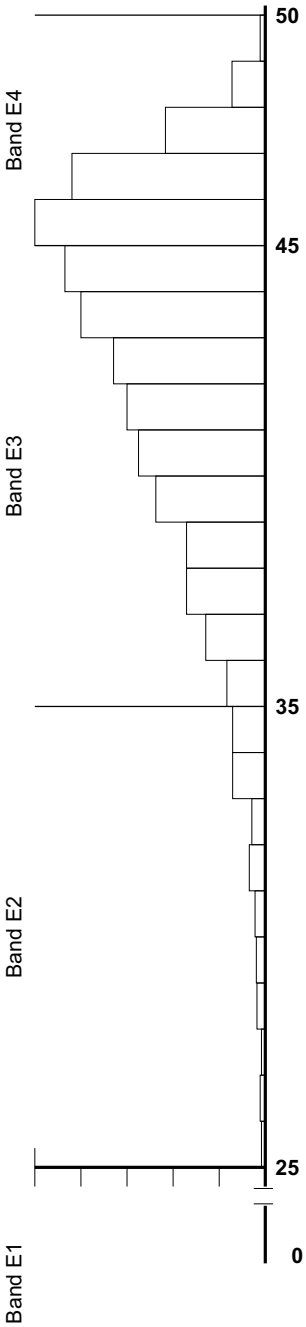
2023 Course Report

English Extension 1



The typical performance in this band:

Demonstrates insightful understanding and sophisticated evaluation of the concepts and values in texts and the ways in which these are expressed. Displays highly developed skills in analysing and evaluating the nature of texts and the relationships between them, and the different ways in which texts are valued. Integrates independent investigation with the student's own reflection on both process and product to develop insightful conclusions. Composes complex extended texts, imaginatively, interpretively and critically with a high level of expertise. Demonstrates outstanding control of language to express complex ideas with precision in a form and style appropriate to purpose, audience and context.

Demonstrates clear understanding and thoughtful evaluation of the concepts and values in texts and the ways in which these are expressed. Displays well-developed skills in analysing and evaluating texts and the relationships between them, and the different ways in which texts are valued. Integrates independent investigation with the student's own reflection on both process and product to develop perceptive conclusions. Composes extended texts, imaginatively, interpretively and critically with substantial expertise. Demonstrates skilful control of language to express complex ideas with clarity in a form and style appropriate to purpose, audience and context.

Demonstrates sound understanding and some evaluation of the concepts and values in texts and the ways in which these are expressed. Displays developed skills in analysing and evaluating texts and the relationships between them, and the different ways in which texts are valued. Integrates independent investigation with the student's own reflection on both process and product to develop informed conclusions. Composes extended texts, imaginatively, interpretively and critically with competence. Demonstrates confident control of language to express complex ideas in a form and style appropriate to purpose, audience and context.

A mark in this band indicates that the student has achieved below the minimum standard expected.

The candidature of this course was 3,671.