2010 HSC Japanese Beginners Sample Answers

This document contains ‘sample answers’, or, in the case of some questions, ‘answers could include’. These are developed by the examination committee for two purposes. The committee does this:

- (a) as part of the development of the examination paper to ensure the questions will effectively assess students’ knowledge and skills, and
- (b) in order to provide some advice to the Supervisor of Marking about the nature and scope of the responses expected of students.

The ‘sample answers’ or similar advice are not intended to be exemplary or even complete answers or responses. As they are part of the examination committee’s ‘working document’, they may contain typographical errors, omissions, or only some of the possible correct answers.

Question 14 (b)

Sample answer:

I think Masaki was chosen because although he hated studying, he did work hard on the things that interested him. Even though he didn't get good results and couldn't go to university, he is now living overseas and doing a job he loves. He is a good role model to encourage students to work hard at what interests them and follow their dream.

Question 15 (a)

Sample answer:

Masao says he is happy because he went skiing with his new girlfriend Rumiko. He didn't expect that he would ever be her boyfriend because she's so nice and pretty and he's not handsome.

Question 15 (b)

Sample answer:

In comment 1 the writer says that Masao should just ignore what the parents say, like he does, and go out with his girlfriend. I think the second comment is more helpful because it makes suggestions about things he could talk to the parents about. These are the balance between study and having fun, the fact that his exam results have improved since the new girlfriend and the fact that they have hobbies in common.
