

2010 CCAFL Swedish Continuers Sample Answers

This document contains 'sample answers', or, in the case of some questions, 'answers could include'. These are developed by the examination committee for two purposes. The committee does this:

- (a) as part of the development of the examination paper to ensure the questions will effectively assess students' knowledge and skills, and
- (b) in order to provide some advice to the Supervisor of Marking about the nature and scope of the responses expected of students.

The 'sample answers' or similar advice are not intended to be exemplary or even complete answers or responses. As they are part of the examination committee's 'working document', they may contain typographical errors, omissions, or only some of the possible correct answers.

Section 1: Listening and Responding

Part A

Question 1

Sample answer:

C

Question 2

Sample answer:

750g mince
2 kg potatoes
Headache tablets

Question 3

Sample answer:

- Johan paints a picture of great excitement. He is right where a very popular band is about to appear
- He alludes to some inside information he has got. He knows one of the band's members personally as he went to school with her
- He promises the listeners to reveal some 'hot' gossip. He tells the listeners that they won't believe their ears
- Johan tells the listeners that they will get to hear what Cecilia, a band member, has to say about the accusations
- He then builds up even more listener interest by letting listeners know what the gossip is about and he implies that it could have something to do with cheating. He says that 'all will be revealed'
- He tells them not to switch stations because of the excitement.

Question 4

Sample answer:

Albin was a very quiet and peaceful baby/toddler/little boy.
When he started school he was very shy.
All this changed when he was about 10. He then became much more extroverted and was popular with friends.
In his early teenage years he was quite rebellious and got into a bit of trouble.
Now, turning 18, he is considerate and caring.

Question 5 (a)

Sample answer:

Gunilla was working in Norway over the summer and Thomas could not afford to go and visit her.

Question 5 (b)

Sample answer:

Gunilla displays a range of emotions during the course of the conversation. She is very happy to see her brother again, saying, 'it's nice to finally see each other'. She is also positive and looking forward to celebrating Christmas. When Thomas doesn't share her excitement for celebrating Christmas, Gunilla appears frustrated and annoyed, saying that 'one shouldn't count on you for anything'. She even gets a bit angry with Thomas, telling him he is 'far too selfish'. As he tries to explain that he is young and likes to have fun with his friends, Gunilla seems a bit resigned and says that she will 'let him decide for himself'.

Section 1: Listening and Responding

Part B

Question 6

Sample answer:

1. Collect their luggage from counter 48.
2. Collect meal vouchers from information counter.
3. Catch bus to hotel at 9pm from exit B.

Question 7 (a)

Sample answer:

Ingrid is asking for Torsten's advice what to do. She should have booked the plane tickets for Stig Andersson and his family already but has failed to do so. The price of the tickets has now gone up and the Anderssons will have to pay more.

Question 7 (b)

Sample answer:

Dear Stig,

I am writing to apologise for a problem that has appeared with your booking. Unfortunately, I didn't make the booking straight away when you had been in on Friday. I was unwell and left the office. Today, when I went to make the booking the price has gone up by 500 kroner per ticket. As compensation for the increased fare, I can offer you a special deal at a good hotel in Sydney. As you know, it has been hard to find a reasonable hotel because of the big conference. I have now managed to book rooms for you at a reduced rate of $100 per room and night at the Beach Hotel. We have had excellent reports about this hotel, and I am sure you will be pleased with it.

Could I please ask you to come in as soon as possible so we can finalise the booking for you. If this is not to your satisfaction and you want to try a different travel agency, we will be able to repay your deposit.

Again, my sincere apologies and look forward to seeing you again.

Regards,
Ingrid

Section 2: Reading and Responding

Part A

Question 8 (a)

Sample answer:

Champion cyclist Jenny Svanberg has admitted to using non-approved cycling equipment and will return her medal from the European Championships 2008.

Question 8 (b)

Sample answer:

	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005
Sporting achievement(s)	1st in Swedish Cycling Championships, junior division	1-3rd in Swedish Cycling Championships senior division	1-3rd in Swedish Cycling Championships senior division	NIL	1st in European Championships

Question 8 (c)

Sample answer:

To influence readers to think negatively about Jenny

To suggest that the coach might have been involved

To ensure readers don't feel too sorry for Jenny by making them see that she always had a choice

To let readers know that the newspaper will continue to investigate.

Question 9 (a)

Sample answer:

- She can't face meeting him at the moment
- She wants him to get the letter before he reads the article in the paper
- She wants to set the record straight and let him know that she only did it once
- She wants to acknowledge his role in her success and thank him
- She wants to make him realise the pressure she felt that she was under
- She wants to explain why she used non-approved equipment
- She acknowledges that what she did was wrong

Question 9 (b)

Sample answer:

- Peter is Jenny's coach.
- It is a supportive relationship. She says that 'you were always there for me'
- However, Jenny also appears a bit frightened by him, as she says that she can't face him at the moment
- Peter is ambitious for both Jenny and him. She says that her success was a dream for both of them
- Peter is also very demanding. Jenny says that 'you demanded so much of me, maybe too much'.

Question 9 (c)

Sample answer:

After reading Jenny's letter, the reader is left with the perception of the reporter trying to sensationalise the issue and just out to sell more papers. The reporter comes across as non-caring. It doesn't seem to matter to him if what he writes about Jenny is true.

After having read Jenny's letter, the reader will see the reporter as a liar. There are a few reasons for this:

- The reporter called it an in-depth interview. However, Jenny states that the reporter kept pestering her for an interview and threatened to write anything if she didn't agree
- They only talked for 5 minutes.
- Jenny says that she only used the non-approved equipment once, whereas the reporter implies that she has done it many times.

Section 2: Reading and Responding

Part B

Question 10

Sample answer:

Points to be addressed by students:

- Helping a poor country
- Hard physical work or kitchen duty
- Poor living standards
- Time (4 months)
- Very basic accommodation and sanitary areas
- No pay but tickets, room and board supplied
- Meeting young people from other countries
- Opportunity to look around Tanzania
- Opportunity to stay on afterwards
- Need 2 referees
- Application due date
- Experience might be good for future career plans.