2012 HSC German Continuers 'Sample Answers'

When examination committees develop questions for the examination, they may write 'sample answers' or, in the case of some questions, 'answers could include'. The committees do this to ensure that the questions will effectively assess students' knowledge and skills.

This material is also provided to the Supervisor of Marking, to give some guidance about the nature and scope of the responses the committee expected students would produce. How sample answers are used at marking centres varies. Sample answers may be used extensively and even modified at the marking centre OR they may be considered only briefly at the beginning of marking. In a few cases, the sample answers may not be used at all at marking.

The Board publishes this information to assist in understanding how the marking guidelines were implemented.

The 'sample answers' or similar advice contained in this document are not intended to be exemplary or even complete answers or responses. As they are part of the examination committee's 'working document', they may contain typographical errors, omissions, or only some of the possible correct answers.

Question 8Sample answer:

Paul is not really a good role model, although he claims he is. He has moved out of home but only pays for half the rent. It is true that he does do a lot of things for himself, including the cleaning and the washing. He says he doesn't need a car but borrows his aunt's car without paying for the petrol. He admits he can't cook but doesn't think it's his fault and eats at his parents' place. He doesn't see this as a lack of independence but just wants to get his father off his back. Although he believes he is independent he obviously isn't.

Section II — Reading and Responding

Part A

Question 9 (a)

Question 9 (c)

It depends on how prepared she is to 'rough it'. Daniel has said that they will be going off the beaten track and staying in tents, where you can hear the animals at night. That could be uncomfortable and Jessica is a city girl. They can't wash their clothes every day and this might be a problem because she can't bring lots of clothes. She isn't used to travelling light and will have to carry her pack herself. Daniel has also implied that she doesn't yet have a passion for nature, so that could be a problem too.

But she is clearly keen to travel with Daniel and is willing to accept his choice of holiday, so it may be okay.
