 * problems at school
 * The parents themselves have problems ~~of~~ assisting to ISRAEL
 Because of this the teenagers are searching for love and warmth - they find this with other teens in the same situation on the street.

(d) Is the writer's attitude to the problem optimistic or pessimistic? Support your answer with evidence from the text.

The writers attitude to the problem is ~~optimistic~~ pessimistic.
 She puts the teenagers down stating the terrible things they do e.g. Stealing for drugs. She states that the thoughts of the teens when they do this is that they need to take for themselves their slice of the cake.
 She says this is a very tough problem and there are some people trying to fix it ~~but~~ yet the problem still ~~exists~~ remains.
