

Adrian Piccoli
Minister for Education

MEDIA RELEASE

Wednesday, 4 November 2015

PENS DOWN FOR 2015 HSC STUDENTS

Minister for Education Adrian Piccoli has congratulated more than 70,000 HSC students across NSW as exams draw to an end.

More than 12,000 students are sitting exams on the final day, with Visual Arts the last to finish at 3.30pm today.

Mr Piccoli said the HSC class of 2015 has worked extremely hard and should be very proud to have completed the HSC.

“This is a huge moment in the lives of these students, who are marking the end of 13 years of schooling and starting a new and exciting chapter in their lives,” Mr Piccoli said.

“Students have spent the past 18 days of exams demonstrating their skills and knowledge and now it’s time for a well-earned break.”

Students can login to Students Online to get their school assessment ranks from 5pm tonight and will receive their HSC results on Wednesday 16 December.

“Our HSC students should be extremely proud of achieving this significant milestone, regardless of what result they receive on December 16,” Mr Piccoli said.