NEVER TELL ME NEVER is the true story of supreme athlete Janine Shepherd and her remarkable life. On the verge of becoming an Olympic ski champion her dreams are shattered when, struck down in a horrific road accident, she is left a paraplegic.

Facing her greatest challenge with determination and courage, Janine (Claudia Karvan) struggles to rebuild her health and life. She is greatly assisted by her loving parents, Max (Michael Caton) and Shirley (Diane Craig), brilliant young surgeon Dr. Adrian Cohen (Robert Mammone) and hospital orderly "uncle" Darryl (John Howard), who helps her through some of her darkest hours.

Told she will never walk again Janine vows to fly instead. She does walk but it is the final freedom of flight that becomes the focus for Janine's 'resurrection'; and in turn introduces her to her future husband, the spectacular aerobatics pilot Tim Blake (Malcolm Kennard).
