

How Working Scientifically and Working Technologically are presented in the draft Science and Technology K–6 Syllabus

Working Scientifically and Working Technologically:

- are presented in stages
- includes Australian curriculum content descriptions for Science and NSW content for Science and Technology
- describes what students are required to learn about and to do from K–6.

How knowledge and understanding is presented in the draft Science and Technology K–6 Syllabus

Knowledge and understanding:

- is presented in stages
- comprises Australian curriculum content descriptions for Science and NSW content for Science and Technology
- describes what students are required to learn about and to do from K–6.

