8.2 Tasks

This syllabus recognises the importance of tasks as an organising principle in structuring a program that allows the student to work towards meeting the objectives and learning outcomes.

Tasks, broadly defined as opportunities for the purposeful use of language, must be selected and designed so that the student can develop and demonstrate knowledge, skills and understanding at increasingly complex levels.

Tasks can be described as having five ~~four~~ elements:

- a purpose (a reason for undertaking the task that goes beyond the practice of the language for its own sake)
- a context (this may be real, simulated or imaginary and may include aspects such as where, when, who is involved)
- an audience (the person or people at whom the task is directed)
- a process (thinking, problem-solving, creating)
- a product (a result that can be described in terms of achievement of the purpose of the task and in the student's overall cognitive development).

8.3 Texts Types

Texts for receptive use will not be prescribed. Students are encouraged to read, view and listen to a wide range of texts, including authentic texts. They are expected to be able to produce the following written texts in the modern standard version of Spanish.

~~Students will be expected to be familiar with the following text types. Text types indicated with an asterisk (*) are those which students may be expected to produce in the external examination. Teachers may introduce the student to a wider range of text types in the course of their teaching and learning program.~~

11.6 HSC External Examination Specifications

Section III: Writing in Spanish

Purpose

Section III of the written examination is designed primarily to assess the student's ability to express ideas through the production of original texts in Spanish. It relates to Objective 2.

Specifications

The student will be required to respond to two tasks graded in difficulty. The tasks will involve presentation of ideas and/or information and/or opinions. The tasks will require different kinds of writing: the first will be informative or descriptive and the second will be reflective, persuasive or evaluative and could require the student to explain or justify a point of view. There will be a choice of questions for each task. The tasks will be related to the themes prescribed in the syllabus. Tasks will accommodate a range of student interests and will be set to ensure they:

- have different purposes, audiences and contexts
- require different text types (see table of text types for productive use).

The student will be expected to write two responses ~~of 100–150 words each in Spanish~~ within the word limits indicated.

The response for the first task will be 50–100 words in Spanish.

The response for the second task will be 150–200 words in Spanish.

The tasks will be phrased in English, for a response in Spanish.
