

Start here.

2012 HSC - Aboriginal Studies

Band 2/3

Sample 2 Question 12(b)

B) Indigenous communities help a lot of indigenous peoples because they are so supportive and want to make people healthier and stronger so that Aboriginal people can have a better life and be happy with a family to support.

Some communities like people with 'closing the gap' try and make Indigenous people healthier by putting together dancing classes and meeting about health and what to do to stay healthy by eating healthy foods and ~~doing exercise~~ exercising nearly everyday. They also have meetings about employment and ~~about~~ about educating ~~up~~ their children. But most of it is about keeping healthy so they can have a longer life and be happy.

~~Another~~ Another community that has to do with health. ~~Wierjely~~ Wierjely is in Cowra NSW. is the Wierjely Drug & Alcohol Rehabilitation Centre. Wierjely help out Aboriginal

Men or women in the community with an addiction to drugs or Alcohol

Additional writing space on back page.