

(b) ~~heritage and identity~~

It is very important to keep that balance of tradition and contemporary expressions to keep our community free from drugs. This in turn will help the socioeconomic status for Indigenous people. A person without a good foundation of heritage and identity is usually found doing drugs and getting drunk 24/7.

It can help your health. contemporary will give you a good life style and housing, employment education etc. and traditional will give you good identity, cultural learning experiences for a good foundation of life.

~~For~~ In the mirjumbal ~~part~~, ~~part~~ part of Australia traditional dances and painting and ~~stories~~ stories of the dreamtime help keep that balance of tradition in life and opportunities to housing, health ~~service~~ services ~~help~~ and Employment all help the communities health education and good life expectancy and life style for future generations to come.

Additional writing space on back page.

2012 HSC - Aboriginal Studies
Band 3/4
Sample 1 Question 21(b)

In conclusion It's important to keep that balance of tradition and contemporary to have a healthy life style and living standards.

← Tick this box if you have continued this answer in another writing booklet.