

(b) In Dubbo, NSW it is important ~~that~~ for traditional and contemporary expressions of heritage and identity for the socioeconomic status of Aboriginal people so that their heritage and identity is shown in different ways so that the non-Indigenous population of Dubbo can understand. They may not understand the traditional expressions but they may understand the contemporary expressions. When Aboriginal people express their ~~heritage~~ Heritage and identity it may have an impact on their socioeconomic status whether it is a negative or positive impact.

In Dubbo Aboriginal people ~~or~~ express their Heritage and Identity in different ways, like in Dubbo ~~some~~ ^{most} Aboriginal boys ~~play~~ play Rugby League which helps ~~improve~~ improve their health. In Dubbo some Aboriginal people paint ~~and~~ to express their heritage and identity and then they may sell their paintings which will help them gain money and add to their income and will also help them buy things that they may need to help them live.

Additional writing space on back page.

2012 HSC - Aboriginal Studies
Band 3/4
Sample 2 Question 21(b)

In Dubbo it is important that however the Aboriginal people express their heritage and identity that they use traditional and also contemporary ways to express their heritage and identity. It is important for the ~~Aboriginal~~ Aboriginal people so it can help increase their socioeconomic status because their socioeconomic status is lower when compared to the non-Indigenous population of Australia.

← Tick this box if you have continued this answer in another writing booklet.