

Start here.

(a) Aboriginal people today express ~~their~~ their identity through ~~many~~ many different ways like Dance, Art, and sport.

2012 HSC - Aboriginal Studies
Band 4/5
Sample 1 Question 21(a)

Preston Campbell expressed his identity through his football but now he is retired he expresses his identity through education and teaching ~~to~~ Indigenous kids they can do anything and express their culture and identity through more and more ways. His work with the titans and their programs like ~~titans~~ ~~by~~ titans beyond tomorrow helps students, so they stay in school and get the job they want and staying true to who they are and expressing their culture and identity anyway they can.

Bangarra Dance Company express their ~~culture~~ identity through dance. ~~or~~ They perform all over the world showing their identity and expressing themselves positively. Bangarra are also about teaching ~~young~~ kids how they can express their identity through dance

They use these dances to show people Indigenous and non-Indigenous their heritage and identity, their culture. Because they perform worldwide, they show their identity and promote Aboriginal culture to people everywhere, which doesn't just express their identity but Australia's Indigenous identity.

b) Traditional and contemporary expressions of ~~heritage~~ heritage and identity is important for the socioeconomic status of Aboriginal people in communities like Minjungbal. Traditional expressions of heritage and identity are important because they provide confidence for Aboriginal people who are doubting themselves. Some traditional expressions include fires around a bora ring and traditional dance and art, these traditional expressions of heritage and identity like dance and art provide Aboriginal people with cultural confidence. With ~~these~~ this confidence they feel they can find a job or they feel

Additional writing space on back page.