

7 What do Sources D, E and other sources reveal about social class in Pompeii and Herculaneum? 7

As shown in sources D, E and other sources it has revealed that the social classes in Pompeii and Herculaneum were based upon wealth. Depending on how important or wealthy you may be the more a citizen may ~~receive~~ ^{realise}. For instance a house which is suitable for the owner or ~~ambassador~~ being ~~honoured~~ by the people. Within the society of Pompeii and Herculaneum one was ~~not~~ only looked after if they were important and had wealth. Pompeii and Herculaneum had a great influence within the importance of having a social ~~loop~~ structure. This had created a divide within the wealth and the poor. Slaves had become a importance with their master. The divide between both social wealth groups had impacted on the different social groups.

End of Question 7