

Start here.

Q23) Businesses ~~are~~ within the automotive repair industry are addressing the challenge of significant changes in technology, materials, repair techniques and of ensuring sustainable practices in many ways. There are many different reasons why significant changes are made throughout the automotive repair industry, ~~these~~ reasons being to improve the safety of automobiles, by using different types ~~improving the safety~~ of materials that are stronger ~~that~~ can sustain crashes, introducing new technologies that can minimize accidents and provide a safer environment when driving.

These types of challenges are addressed throughout the industry ^{are also} to make a strong impact towards the environment by making fuel efficient ~~cars~~ ^{vehicles} that don't give out as many harmful emissions, ~~and~~ introducing hybrid vehicles that run off electricity. ~~the~~ Putting ~~exhaust~~ chemical storage areas over the workplace ~~to~~ ~~mini~~ and disposing the waste properly to minimize the impact on the environment. Significant changes in repair techniques is addressed to improve the safety of components within a vehicle, longer lasting components which saves a lot of money for the owner in the long run. Changes in repair techniques will also increase ~~the~~ ~~eff~~ time efficiency as repairs can be made a lot quicker than they usually are. Improvements in technology ^{within} ~~allows~~ the industry allows ~~en~~ workers to understand and monitor things a lot more closely and carefully ^{which} ~~improves~~ the safety.

Many of these challenges are addressed through ~~are~~ meetings, forums, which discuss new ideas that can be done to improve issues and improve the efficiency in the automotive repair industry.

Additional writing space on back page.