

---

Question 11 (2 marks)

Outline occupational health and safety (OHS) factors that a designer should consider when designing a mass-produced office chair.

2

The office chair can change to high and it's soft. can relax people when they work tired.

Also the office chair easy move and can turn around.