
Question 11 (2 marks)

Outline occupational health and safety (OHS) factors that a designer should consider when designing a mass-produced office chair.

2

- Safe (No sharp or dangerous parts)
- seat recline to reasonable length
- ergonomically pleasing / aesthetically pleasing
- lifts and lowers easily at reasonable height
- considers people of different body types