Attempt Questions 1–6

Answer the questions in the spaces provided. These spaces provide guidance for the expected length of response.

Your answers will be assessed on how well you:

- demonstrate understanding of the relationship between language, text, audience and purpose

The Listening Task

You are about to hear an extract from an ABC radio interview. In the extract, we hear Adam Spencer interview Chris Hadfield, an astronaut and author, about his experiences in space.

Before you hear the recording, you will have two minutes to read the questions printed in this paper.

As you are listening to the recording, follow the questions. You may write notes if you wish in the Candidate's Notes spaces provided on pages 2–4. Anything you write in the Candidate's Notes spaces will NOT be marked.

You will hear the recording, then the questions will be read aloud. You will hear the recording a SECOND time, and then you will be given time to write the answers.

You now have two minutes to read the questions.

Question 1 (2 marks)

Question 2 (2 marks)

What was it about the YouTube lessons that captivated the minds of millions of people? 2

He was blind and he went to the space
 He was answering questions to the kids in Canada about what happened in the space as he said that 10m people saw it because it was interesting to see how the water behaved the way it did. His suit was full of blood.

Question 3 (2 marks)

What does Chris Hadfield mean when he says: 'It was such a rare, joyous, challenging and worthwhile human endeavour'? 2

He was challenged as he was blind and he had courage to go to the space and do some interesting experiments
 even though things went wrong for him, he was still challenged.

Question 4 (2 marks)

Give TWO examples of Chris Hadfield's success. 2

He is now popular as he has 10m people viewed his youtube video, and found it interesting.
 His experiment was simple and it turned into a big one because people found it interesting.
