

Section II — Answer Question 2

2

Question Number

Discovery allowed the people to explore ideas about themselves, others and the world. This can be ~~conveyed~~ confronting but it also brings conveyed for it. Ray Bradbury in "Fahrenheit 451" explore the importance of freedom and education in the world around us. Jane Harrison in the play "Rainbow's End" forces the audiences to discover the reality of Australian's treatment Aboriginal people in the world. The <sup>short</sup> film Clymation "Hurrie Krumpet" by Adam Elliot also shows that the most importance ~~conveyed~~ <sup>situation</sup> confronting can be <sup>provid</sup> ~~conveyed~~ for themselves and others around them.

In Fahrenheit 451 demonstrated that importance of education and freedom in the world. The main character is Montag, and his job is burn any books remain. As Montag is adoub to his job, simile and Symbolism used to show how this # feels upset him. ~~and~~

He feels "like a white pigeon in his hand" and they feel they killed the bird symbolic of innocence and ~~freedom~~ discovery.

Bird. Bird is symbolic for book. ~~It~~ by using these symbolic the author create the ideas<sup>for reader</sup> in the world, without discovery to learn and freedom no one can made discovery

Montag makes discoveries that there must be something important in the books. It tries to describe to his wife something in there.

and ~~it's~~ it's surprising the imaging & how a woman stay in burning house" he realise discovery make a human. when he met a girl named Clarice, she asked a question but he can't answer and girl cross the lawn with mask.

her. he realise he wore a mask<sup>and</sup> <sup>he</sup>pretending his life is happy. but he realise that how miserable life he have.

In dram text "Rainbow's End is also explore the importance encyclopaedia. When Errol, an inexperienced travelling salesman He opened the word up a dis... Gladly finished the ^ word discovery.

 pass the bridge humpis by mistake. He ~~tries~~ offers encyclopaedia set to Gladly. Gladly wanted buy encyclopaedia for her daughter because she wasn't able to go to school and can't read. because ~~has~~ she knows access to knowledge and for her all of these is opportunity <sup>a key</sup> for <sup>to</sup> success the information

The bank manager is minor character in this play and teaches the audience racism through his dialogue and his actions.

and he wants the audience discover & racism attitude. Gladly try convince interview job for dolly. The bank manager said "What I'm wondering how shed .. fit in. It means he doesn't want his white customer be deserve Aboriginal people, even his action was worst a ~~key~~ two cup of tea <sup>jug milk</sup> and bowl sugre he does not offer to Gladly because he doesn't want her lips touch his things. that was shocking for many Australian people when they know about that.

Black comedy is used in Hurvick Krump to show that superseding the natural. by admitting Hurvick in hospital because he has cancer and lost the "testicle" but he gained a wife and fell in love with her. This highlights even life has become bad. There is a bright side

~~In this ideas~~

In conclusion

~~In~~ this ideas in Fahrenheit 451 explore the importance of freedom and education. In "Rainbow's End" forces audience to discover reality of Australia's <sup>treatment</sup> Aboriginal people. and also in Hurvick Krump by Adam Elliot shows that the importance confronting situation can be provided for themselves or other around them.