

Start here.

2012 HSC - Human Services

Band 1/2

Sample 2 Question 21

The health and/or aged care industry could respond to the many issues currently affecting the delivery of ~~care~~ care in the health and/or aged care industry using reporting methods.

The reporting the ineffective delivery of care in the health and/or aged care industry it will help improve care standards in aged care facilities.

The health and/or aged care industry can use reporting techniques such as getting care team members to alert supervisors of health inequities that are being faced.

The health and/or aged care industry could respond by providing better care services.