

Question 24 (6 marks)

With reference to ONE contemporary human rights issue, explain the role of state sovereignty in enforcing human rights.

6

A contemporary human rights issue is Rights of a child. A child has a right to an education. They have a right to live in ~~an~~ ~~an~~ safe environment free from harm and fear. State sovereignty is a states right to enforce law and how they govern their state. In Australia we have many laws and acts to enforce human rights. Such as DCS - Department of Child Services, CROCS, - ~~Right~~ Rights of child, Family law Act, and Childrens organisations such as Atambi.