

Question 22 (2 marks)

Define the right to self-determination.

2

Self-determination is a collective right that is given to a group of people. For example indigenous people to govern themselves and have control over original land.