

- 7 Use your own knowledge and Source C to give THREE reasons why it was difficult to evacuate wounded men from the trenches. 3

Three reasons why it was difficult to remove wounded men from trenches were: Trenches were often badly constructed and weather worn, blockages and drainage issues resulted in many communication lines being cut off. And risking helping a wounded man evacuate from the trenches often resulted in being exposed to the enemy snipers.