

Start here.

South Australia is located at the bottom of Australia in between Victoria and Western Australia. The capital of South Australia is Adelaide.

Tourism products can include accommodation, transport, attractions.

There is a range of accommodation in South Australia including hotels, motels, caravan parks, camping, holiday rental houses.

Transport offered in South Australia includes trains, buses, rental cars, light rails and ferries.

Tourism products can include timetables for buses, trains, ferries and light rail. Major gateway ~~and the~~ <sup>at the</sup> airport is through Adelaide (ADL).

Some attractions in South Australia include the Adelaide Zoo where you can experience many native and exotic species of animals. The ~~royal~~ botanic gardens is a beautiful place to relax and have a picnic.

The Barossa Valley is popular for wine tasting. Here you can go on a wine tour <sup>and</sup> cooking classes.

Additional writing space on back page.