Source A — The Top 200 Companies, 1987 and 1997

Source B — Full-time Employment by Industry, 1996
The Christchurch Urban Area demonstrates a clear geographical spread based on the Index of Deprivation (IOD). Deprivation is the state of being worse off than the society in which one lives. The IOD is based on:

- access to telephone
- income from government benefits
- unemployment
- income level
- access to a motor vehicle
- single parent families
- low qualifications
- level of house ownership
- living space

Source C — Index of Deprivation, Christchurch City by Meshblock 1996 Census

Source E — Cartogram

Source F — Topographic Map - Christchurch

Source G — Synoptic Chart and Satellite Image for 2 December 2000

Source H — Lyttelton Harbour

Source D — Deprivation

The Christchurch Urban Area demonstrates a clear geographical spread based on the Index of Deprivation (IOD).

Deprivation is the state of being worse off than the society in which one lives. The IOD is based on:

- access to telephone
- income from government benefits
- unemployment
- income level
- access to a motor vehicle
- single parent families
- low qualifications
- level of house ownership
- living space

Source F — Topographic Map – Christchurch

Source G — Synoptic Chart and Satellite Image for 2 December 2000

Source H — Lyttelton Harbour
