Sanjate li o putovanju u Lijepu Našu? Konačnom sastanku s rodbinom i prijateljima u domovini?

Zamislite što vas čeka!

– kazališne predstave i razgledavanje bijelog grada Zagreba!
– slast krempita u Samoboru!
– šetnje Splitskom rivom!
– prekrasni pogledi s drevnih zidina Dubrovnika!
– idilično kupanje u azurnom plavilu Jadrana u Makarskoj!

Tu možete biti i vi! Pozivamo sve mlade Hrvate i Hrvatice iz Australije da napišu sastav od 1000 riječi s naslovom “Što mi znači Hrvatska”

Nagrdita je dvije povratne zrakoplovne karte za Hrvatsku!

Sastav pošaljite do 30. rujna na adresu ove radio postaje.
Text 3

Danijela: Andrija pogledaj! Održava se Međunarodna smotra folklora u Zagrebu baš u ono vrijeme kad i mi budemo u Hrvatskoj. Trebali bi organizirati preko agenta karte!

Andrija: Karte! Kakve karte?!

Danijela: Pa za smotru! Naravno! Naziv smotre je “Čuvajmo običaje zavičaja!”

Andrija: Ma hajde Danijela, nemoj biti smješna! Što će mi folklor? Ja planiram na more! Na kupanje! Na sunce! Kakav folklor?!

Danijela: Znaš li ti da se preko folklornih plesova održava povijesna, društveno — gospodarska i kulturna osobitost raznih krajeva Hrvatske, a različiti načini sudjelovanja u plesu pokazuju društveni položaj pojedinacu u zajednici. Čovijek može mnogo toga naučiti glede društva i nekadašnjeg načina života. Hrvatska je posebno jako bogata folklornom i kulturnom baštinom, a to bi bilo fantastično vidjeti.

Andrija: U pravu si! Slazem se time, ali ipak otići u Hrvatsku, te biti u Zagrebu ljeti, po toj vručini! To me ne vuci!

Danijela: Pa dobro! Smotra neće trajati cijela dvije mjeseca našeg boravka. Traje samo tijedan dana. Bilo bi mi krivo da propustim tu priliku. Bogatstvo i earolikost plesnih stilova, te prateće pjesme, svirke i glazbala ostajeće zauvijek u sjecanju. Tijedan dana! To nije dugo! Kad ćemo opet imati mogućnost vidjeti smotru folklora u Hrvatskoj?! Što kažeš?

Andrija: Ako može organizirati karte, onda ih kupi! Ima pravo! Bit će i meni zanimljivo!

Danas vam prenosimo dio govora o Hrvatima u Australiji.

Prošle godine mnogi Hrvati širom Australije uspješno su se kladili na konja “Makybe Diva” na Melbourne Kupu i to samo zato što je donji dio jahaceve košulje slično hrvatskom grbu. Tek su kasnije saznali da je vlasnik konja Toni Santić, uspješni hrvatski ribar iz Port Lincolna. Pred dvadeset godina još jedan član uspješne ribarske obitelji u Port Lincolnu, Dean Lukin, osvojio je za Australiju zlatnu medalju u dizanju utega teške kategorije na Olimpijskim igrama u Los Angelesu.

Hrvati južne Australije istakli su se u mnogim industrijskim granama a pogotovo kao brodograditelji u Adelaidi, Whyalli i Port Lincolnu. Ribari u Port Lincolnu uhvate 95% godišnjeg ulova tune u Australiji. Mnogi su se istakli u proizvodnji i graditeljstvu u Adelaidi, u čeličanama u Whyalli, u šumarstvu u Mt. Gambieru, u uzgajanju voća u Riverlandu a ima i onih koji su postigli prilične uspjehe u rudnicima opala u Coober Pedyu.

Prvi hrvatski klub osnovan je u Adelaidi 1950. god. Danas Hrvatski klub se nalazi u Ridleytonu. U sklopu kluba je škola za 150 učenika, folklorna plesna grupa, društvo za umjetnost i obrt, društvo umirovljenika i boće društvo.
Marija: Dobar dan! Ovdje Marija. Mogu li razgovarati s Davorom?
Marija: Ne, nego 215. Ako slučajno ne može doći u to vrijeme recite mu da ju nazove i ugovori drugi sastanak!
Gosp. Bjelić: A koji je njen broj?
Marija: 9337 8961
Gosp. Bjelić: 9337
Marija: 8961
Marija: Do videnja!
Majka: Hrvoje... zar si opet pred računalom?

Sin: Da mama. Razgledavam najnovije slike s modnih pista iz Milana, Pariza, New Yorka. To mi je dio zadataka za modni dizajn.

Majka: Dobro, to završi a svakako ne namjeravaš nastavljati s time iduće godine. Mislim da je studij ekonomije na sveučilištu najbolji izbor za tebe.

Sin: Da mama. Iz ekonomije su mi odlične ocijene, čak sam među najboljim učenicima svog razreda, ali to mene ne zanima. To je jednostavno dosadno, samo bubanje na pamet ekonomskih pojmova. Ne mogu zamisliti nastavak studija ekonomije još četiri godine. Pa to bi bilo ubistvo!

Majka: Pa što misliš upisati?

Sin: Modni dizajn — to mi je zanimljivo i smatram da imam doslovno i talenta i smisla za taj posao. Već duže vremena pratim modu i sanjam svoje kreacije koje neprestalno zacrtavam u knjižicu koja je uvijek sa mnom.

Sin: A' mama, u sklopu dizajna uči se i o marketingu tako da se osposobimo za rad u proizvodnji mode. To je posao koji stvarno želim raditi. To mi je san!

Majka: San! Kakav san za muškarca! To je sramota! Ne želim da moj sin bude kreator mode! Pa što će ljudi reći? E svaštla! Ima li se išta pametnije od tebe čuti?

Sin: S tobom je stvarno NEMOGUĆ razgovarati! IDEM VAN! Do videnja!

MLADI HRVATI I HRVATICE

Hrvatski klub poziva sve mlade Hrvate i Hrvatice na poseban sastanak koji će se održati u našim prostorijama u petak 12. studenca, u 18.30 sati.

Upravni odbor Hrvatskog kluba želi uključiti mlade Hrvate i Hrvatice u planiranju programa za mlade. U našem klubu ima mnogo prostorija koje su često prazne te smo i uvidjeli da mladi rijetko dolaze u naš klub i to nas zabrinjava.

Zato vas pozivamo da dođete i izrazite svoje mišljenje i recite nam što bi se moglo organizirati. Želite li da organiziramo plesove, šahovsko društvo, folklor, koncerte, kino-klub, natjecanja stolnog tenisa, diskusije, kulturne večeri, internet kafić, rukotvorne radinosti ili...?

Sigurni smo da ćete nam upravo vi moći reći što najviše zanima mlade.

Naš cilj je da okupimo što više mladih. Dođite na ovaj sastanak i dovedite svoje prijatelje jer 'Na mladima svijet ostaje'.

Vidimo se na sastanku.

Upravni odbor

Write the text of a speech which you will give at the above-mentioned meeting in about 150–200 words in Croatian.

Napiši tekst govora kojeg ćeš održati na gore navedenom sastanku u 150–200 riječi na hrvatskom jeziku.

New captain for Dinamo

The soccer club Dinamo, the Premiers of the Croatian Soccer League, have elected the youngest captain in the club’s history. The role of captain will be played by 19-year-old player Niko Kranjčar who has only been playing with the premier team since the age of 17 in Croatia’s premier team. Known as a character on and off the field his talent and potential has still attracted the attention of soccer experts. When recently asked about his new role, his answer was ‘If you really love something, take it seriously.’

Do you dream of travelling to ‘Our beautiful country’? A long awaited meeting with family and friends in the homeland?

Imagine what awaits you:

– theatre shows and sightseeing in the white city of Zagreb!
– the sweet delight of a vanilla slice in Samobor!
– walks on the Split riviera!
– a magnificent view from Dubrovnik’s ancient walls!
– idyllic swimming in the azure blue of the Adriatic in Makarska!

You could be there too!

We invite all young Croatians of Australia to write a 1000 word essay titled ‘What Croatia means to me!’

The prize is a return trip to Croatia for two!

Send your essays by 30 September to the address of this radio station.
Danijela: Andrija, look! The International Folkloric Festival will be held in Zagreb at exactly the same time as we will be in Croatia. We must organise tickets through the travel agent!

Andrija: Tickets! What tickets?!

Danijela: For the Festival! Of course! The festival is titled ‘Preserve the traditions of your homeland’!

Andrija: Come on Danijela! Don’t be funny! Why do I need folklore? I’m planning to be on the beach! Swimming! Sunbathing! What folklore?

Danijela: Are you aware that it is through folkloric dancing that historical, social, economic and cultural characteristics of Croatia are maintained? The different interactions in dance illustrate the position of individuals in society. One can learn much about society and life in those days. Croatia, in particular, is very rich in folklore and cultural heritage and that would be fantastic to see.

Andrija: You’re right! I agree with that, but again to visit Croatia, to be in Zagreb in the summer in that heat! I’m just not drawn to it!

Danijela: Well OK! The Festival is not going to be on for the whole two months of our visit to Croatia. It will only last two weeks. I would really feel bad letting that opportunity pass me by! The richness and variety of dance styles, the accompanying songs, music and musical instruments will always stay in our memories. One week! That’s not long! When are we ever again going to have the opportunity to see the Folkloric Festival in Croatia? What do you say?

Andrija: If you can organise tickets then buy them! You’re right! I’ll find it interesting too!
Text 4

Today we are presenting part of a speech on Croatians in Australia.

Last year many Croatians throughout Australia successfully placed bets on ‘Makybe Diva’ a horse in the Melbourne Cup, simply because the bottom half of the rider’s dress resembled the Croatian national emblem. It was only later that they found out the owner of the horse is actually Tony Santic, a successful Croatian fisherman from Port Lincoln. Twenty years ago, another member of the successful fishing families of Port Lincoln, Dean Lukin, won a gold medal for Australia in the heavy weight category of weight lifting.

The Croatians of South Australia have distinguished themselves in many different branches of industry but particularly as ship builders in Adelaide, Wyalla and Port Lincoln. The fishermen in Port Lincoln catch 95% of the yearly tuna yield in Australia. Many others have distinguished themselves in manufacturing and building in Adelaide, in the steelworks of Wyalla, in the forest industry of Mt. Gambier, fruit farming in Riverland and there are those who have had reasonable success in the opal mines of Cooper Pedy.

The first Croatian club was founded in Adelaide in 1950. Today the Croatian Club is in Ridleyton. Within the club is a school for 150 students, a folkloric dance ensemble, an association for art and craft, a pensioner’s association and a lawn bowls association.

Marija: Hello! Marija here. May I speak with Davor?

Mr Bjelic: I’m sorry he’s not at home. This is Davor’s father! Do you have a message?

Marija: Of course Mr. Bjelic. This is a very important message. Please tell him that I spoke to the manager of my company and organised a meeting with her for. The meeting is on Saturday at 4 pm. Her name is Mrs. Bregovic and her office is on the first floor, Kazalisna 215.

Mr Bjelic: You mean Mrs Bregovic at Kazalisna 205?

Marija: No, no, 215. In case he is unable to come at that time please tell him to call her and organise another appointment!

Mr Bjelic: And what is her number?

Marija: 9337 8961

Mother: Hrvoje... are you on the computer again?

Son: Yes mum. I’m looking at the newest images from the catwalks of Milan, Paris, New York. It is part of my assignment for fashion design.

Mother: Good, finish that. You’re not continuing with that next year anyway. I think that studying economics at university is the best choice for you.

Son: Yes mum. My marks in economics are excellent. I am even one of the best students in the class, but it doesn’t interest me. It is simply boring, only rote learning of economic terms. I can’t even begin to imagine continuing studying economics for four more years! That would be hell!

Mother: So what do you intend to enrol in?

Son: Fashion design — I find it really interesting and believe that I have enough talent and imagination for that job. I have been following fashion for some time now and I dream up my own creations which I continually draw in an exercise book, that is always with me.

Mother: Do you think you could make a living from a job like that? You’re looking at famous designers and you think it is easy to become one? Oh (my) son (pause)...! That is hard! The majority of designers do not make it to the top and simply remain working for someone else. And I won’t even mention the pay — that is an unstable job! At least with an economics degree you will be able to get a job in a company or a bank. You will have a secure future.

Son: But mum, within design one also studies marketing in order to qualify us to work in manufacturing fashion. That is the job I really want to do! That is my dream!

Mother: Dream! What kind of dream is that for a male! That is an embarrassment! I do not want my son to be a fashion designer! What would people say about that? What rubbish! Don’t you have anything more intelligent to say?

Son: It is really IMPOSSIBLE to talk to you! I AM GOING OUT! Goodbye!

Question 7

We all know well how the Croatians along the Adriatic coast longingly await the beginning of the tourist season because to them it means an assurance of existence for the next year. For Croatia, 7–8 million tourists also mean a huge boost to the Croatian economy. Unfortunately, the same cannot be said for the continental part of Croatia. That part is significantly less visited as the Adriatic Coast is dominant. Because of that, it is necessary to connect the green-continental and the blue-coastal tourism.

Despite this the main task of Croatian tourism in the future period is to solve the unsuitable infrastructures and transport links and to encourage the enterprising consciousness with suitable government credits so that one can expect the development of tourist services and the extension of the tourist season. Despite a long cultural tradition, in future years Croatian tourism must offer new and better quality services to be competitive.

Croatian tourism is looking for restructure and positioning in the international tourist market and that is why it will definitely need aid from foreign professionals and capital. This takes us to the key question “What steps has our government taken to protect the ownership of Croatian territories and property in Croatian hands?” The Croatian government must ensure that the mistake made in the fifteenth century when a part of Croatia was sold to Venice is not repeated.
Question 8

OPEN YOUR EYES AND LISTEN

Dear readers,

On the occasion of the 17th anniversary of Radio 101 in 2001, instead of the traditional party, the radio station began a project entitled “Open your eyes and listen”, dedicated to the problem of drug addiction in Croatia, particularly among teenagers. It is evident that this problem regarding drugs in Croatia has reached alarming proportions for a long time now, and the majority of actions up to until 2001, have not managed to achieve remarkable results at either local or state levels. The managing committee of Radio 101 thought, that they could do much to provide a quality solution to the problem of drug-addiction by taking into consideration the profiles of their listeners, as well as the results which they had achieved during other similar humanitarian actions taken.

In order for their project to have both long-term as well as fast, concrete aims, with the help of the Government’s Office of Associations, they decided with that action, to assist financially and materially, some associations that work with treating addicts and that work in the Split-Dalmatian, Osijek-baranja and Zagreb counties, counties that have the highest percentage of addicts in Croatia. In order to raise as many funds as possible, Radio 101 has released a CD called “Open your eyes and listen”. Established names in the “Our beautiful country” music scene have gladly and without reservation, dived into the project, donating all of their work to the compact disc and have, of course, agreed that all proceeds of the sale would go to help the associations.

OUR HATS GO OFF TO RADIO 101 AND THE STARS OF CROATIAN ENTERTAINMENT!

The above mentioned action is just one of the many actions held in the last 10 years in Croatia dedicated to the problem of drugs.

Currently in the Republic of Croatia there are 13,000 addicts, and when one compares it in trading and use of drugs, Croatia is on par with the rest of the world. In their yearly report for 2002, the United Nations office of health states that opiates, especially heroin, is still the ‘main drug’ in Europe and is found in 70% of cases of treatment for drug abuse! Last year, Croatia recorded its first deaths to the use of ecstasy and the Croatian government has again started a new campaign to fight against synthetic drugs. The number of drug users is not dropping, despite the fact that large sums of money and effort are being invested to improve the results.

We ask ourselves at this time: Has anything really changed in the last 10 years? How successful are these actions? Has the Government managed to solve even 5% of drug problems?

Question 9

YOUNG CROATIANS

The Croatian Club is calling for all young Croatians to attend a special meeting to be held on our premises on Friday 12th November at 6.30 pm.

The Management Committee of the Croatian club would like to involve young Croatians in the planning of a youth program. Our club has many auditoriums often not utilised and we have noticed that young people rarely visit the club and this worries us.

That is why we are asking for your attendance to inform us on what could be organised. Would you like us to organise dances, a chess club, folkloric dance, concerts, cinema-club, ping-pong, competitions, discussions, cultural evenings, internet cafe, craft club or . . .?

We are certain that you will be able to tell us what interests young people the most.

Our aim is to gather as many young people as possible to the club. Come to this meeting and bring your friends because ‘The world rests in the hands of the young’.

See you at the meeting!

Management committee
