2023 Course Report

Information and Digital Technology Examination

State Distribution | The typical examination performance in this band:

Band 6 (90–100)
Demonstrates extensive knowledge and understanding of HSC content in the focus areas (including mandatory and stream, where applicable). Demonstrates comprehensive understanding and proficiency in the application of industry-related skills to workplace contexts and scenarios. Applies knowledge and skills to solve complex problems. Effectively presents logical and cohesive responses using relevant workplace examples. Effectively communicates ideas and information using a range of appropriate industry terminology.

Band 5 (80–90)
Demonstrates thorough knowledge and understanding of HSC content in the focus areas (including mandatory and stream, where applicable). Demonstrates a well-developed understanding and proficiency in the application of industry-related skills to workplace contexts and scenarios. Applies knowledge and skills to solve familiar and unfamiliar problems. Presents logical and cohesive responses using workplace examples. Communicates ideas and information, using appropriate industry terminology.

Band 4 (70–80)
Demonstrates sound knowledge and understanding of HSC content in the focus areas (including mandatory and stream, where applicable). Demonstrates sound understanding in the application of industry-related skills to workplace contexts and/or scenarios. Applies knowledge and skills to solve familiar problems. Presents logical responses using workplace examples. Communicates ideas and information, using industry terminology.

Band 3 (60–70)
Demonstrates basic understanding of HSC content in the focus areas (including mandatory and stream, where applicable). Demonstrates basic understanding of workplace skills. Presents a basic response using workplace examples. Communicates information using basic industry terminology.

Band 2 (50–60)
Demonstrates elementary understanding of HSC content in the focus areas (including mandatory and stream, where applicable). Demonstrates limited understanding of workplace skills. Communicates using non-industry specific terminology.

Band 1 (0–50)
A mark in this band indicates that the student has achieved below the minimum standard expected.

The candidature of this course was 366.