2014 Course Report

BOSTES

BOARD OF STUDIES
TEACHING & EDUCATIONAL
STANDARDS NSW
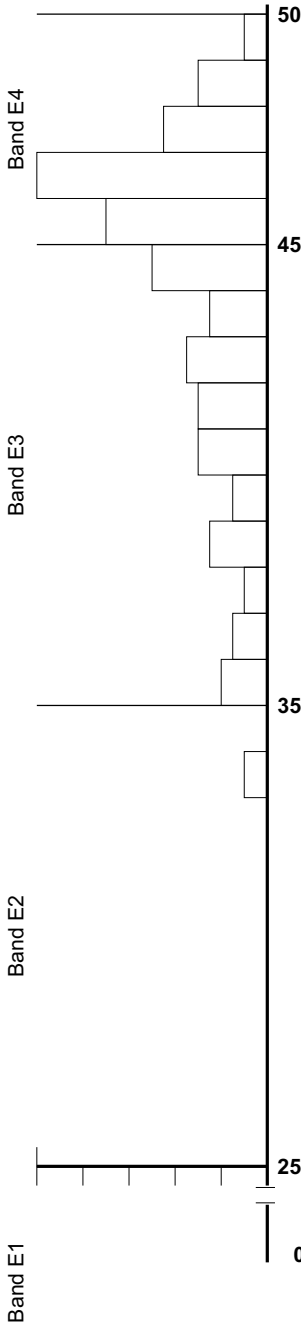

Latin Extension

State Distribution

The typical performance in this band:

50

Demonstrates an excellent understanding of the prescribed text by translating the Latin into idiomatic and fluent English, accurately interpreting the relationship between words and structures and showing a sensitivity to the prescribed genre and to the content and style of the author. Demonstrates an excellent understanding of the content and literary conventions of the prescribed text and genre in a discerning and well-structured response using appropriate critical terminology and supporting the response with extensive references to the prescribed text. Demonstrates a precise and sophisticated understanding of the relationship between Latin and English in language structure, using well-developed linguistic skills.

45

Demonstrates a substantial understanding of the prescribed text by translating the Latin into fluent English, accurately interpreting the relationship between most words and structures, and showing an awareness of the prescribed genre and the content and style of the author. Demonstrates substantial understanding of the content of the prescribed text and characteristic features of its genre in a competent, organised response, supported by some references to the prescribed text. Demonstrates a substantial understanding of the relationship between Latin and English in language structure.

35

Demonstrates a basic understanding of the prescribed text by translating some of the Latin into English, showing an understanding of the relationship between some words and structures, and a general grasp of the content. Demonstrates a basic understanding of the content of the prescribed text in a simplistic response, supporting the response with basic reference to the prescribed text. Demonstrates a basic understanding of the relationship between Latin and English in language structure.

25

A mark in this band indicates that the student has achieved below the minimum standard expected.

0

The candidature of this course was 105.

Band E4

Band E3

Band E2

Band E1

ORTA RECENS QUAM PURA NITES