

b). It is very important as it teaches the younger generations their culture and identity. The Worimi people in our local community, we have the NAIDOC celebrations down the river, Art, Dance groups from schools, etc..

Additional writing space on back page.