

Start here.

Why are some Aboriginal people ~~unwilling~~ unwilling to participate in community consultation?

With communities Aboriginal are vulnerable of open racism. As seen Aboriginal people are still segregated against as 'missions' and reserves are still in usage.

For Aboriginal people today many stereotypes are still in large. So why would an Aboriginal person want to participate in community consultation when they aren't welcomed or wanted? Some communities don't invite them in as they should.