

ⓑ

The Mabo decision and subsequent legislation on Australian Indigenous communities and their access to native title were a great success for Indigenous people.

The quote;

Those who have been most dispossessed, are least able to access native title.

Show that even though Indigenous people were so disadvantaged they worked their way back and gained what was rightfully theirs.

Additional writing space on back page.