

Start here.

Section 1

Part B - A comparative Study

Question 12 - Health

(b)

The effectiveness of Indigenous community health initiatives which improve socioeconomic status within the Australian Indigenous community ^{Such as the one in} Tweed Heads which is called Mingunbal the community has a health initiative in place, ~~is~~ called Bugawenna medical center which has been set up to help improve socioeconomic status such as health.

The Waiko community in New Zealand also has a health initiative in place which is called Energize which aims to reduce the risk of cardiovascular diseases ~~in~~ ~~the~~ of Indigenous ~~and~~ children they have successfully reduced the rate of heart problems in their community by ~~+~~ three to five percent.

The amount of school children who were at risk of cardiovascular diseases, has ~~been~~ reduced as more information about eating the right types of food has been introduced ~~through~~ to schools through the health initiative Energize.

Additional writing space on back page.