

Start here.

A. Many Aboriginal people might not want to participate in community consultation because some Aboriginal people may still feel as they are not treated equally and ~~what ever they say would~~ they may think what ever they say would not get acknowledged anyway. Many Aboriginal people may feel as they don't get acknowledged and respected as they should. Also some might not like confrontation.