David Aulpilil is a well respected Aboriginal man in his community through his songs and movies and after all that he still comes back to his ~~own~~ country and experiences the traditional Aboriginal life with his people. He is respected for this. He has a house but chooses to ~~live~~ live with his people. This is the cultural identity and heritage that people has lost through the new generation of kids. Most Aboriginal people are very sick these days because of the stolen generation this created loss of culture and they don't know who their family is and their lack of culture, identity and heritage makes this ~~person~~ person lost and sick this can lead to ~~alcohol~~ Alcohol and Drug Abuse. Dispossession.
