

Start here.

Some Aboriginal people may be unwilling to participate in community consultation due to the history of exploitation and discrimination towards Aboriginal people. Aboriginal people would likely avoid participation in consultation so that their traditional values and culture cannot be twisted for the benefit of ~~the~~ whomever wants to consult them. Some Aboriginal people may be wary to have any communication due to racism and the fact that 3 out of 4 Aboriginal people experience racism in their everyday lives. - Anter.