

Start here.

A). He would use it to find out the information he needs to set up the job.

B). It is critical because you will blow your engine up if its not correct.

C). Wind motor to top dead centre then find the valves that are able to be shaken. Then get your Shimms and adjust to the right clearances. And do it for all valves.

