| Start here.                                                                                                                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2010 HSC - Business ServicesBand 1/2                                                                                        |
| A manager of a business to improve                                                                                              |
| the employees work inside the                                                                                                   |
| the employees work inside the business could offer rewards and                                                                  |
| atsk the employees for changes                                                                                                  |
| or upgrades to help the business.                                                                                               |
| The manager should have equity                                                                                                  |
| over all the employees treating                                                                                                 |
| them fair and equally would improve                                                                                             |
| and start to make a change.                                                                                                     |
| Putting the employees in their                                                                                                  |
| prefferred job where they excel                                                                                                 |
| improving and arounising the business                                                                                           |
| The Manager should have a                                                                                                       |
| improving and organising the business. The Manager should have a team of employees that all get                                 |
| along and work effectively to all standard and requirements.                                                                    |
| all standard and centurements.                                                                                                  |
| The manager should upgrade                                                                                                      |
| The manager should upgrade equipment where is needed and could be a quicker for the bos business.  Must enforce and be sure the |
| be a quicker for the bois husiness.                                                                                             |
| Must enforce and he sure the                                                                                                    |
| work place is safe and meets                                                                                                    |
| work place is safe and meets at requirements of the OHDS                                                                        |
| legislation-                                                                                                                    |
| The manager should Act on                                                                                                       |
|                                                                                                                                 |