

Section I25 marks*Attempt Question 1*Allow about 50 minutes for this section

Read the texts on pages 3–5 of the question paper, then answer the questions in the spaces provided. These spaces provide guidance for the expected length of response.

Your answers will be assessed on how well you:

- demonstrate understanding of the ways language shapes and expresses perceptions
-

Question 1 (25 marks)Text 1 — Memoir extract

- (a) Describe the negative discoveries made by Brian Turner. 2

He rides to a place which is small land, ~~and~~ no good viewing and noisy sound. Also, he has to accept these things, its called 'price of progress'.

- (b) How does Brian Turner use language to convey his positive feelings about his discoveries? 4

In the text, the author use of repetition of 'keep going'. This indicate to audience that doesn't matter how badly you hurt and keep going will make you become good. The author also use of quotation mark "if you want to be good, you must learn to suffer" highlights learning suffer will make you become good and strong in the future.

Question 1 continues on page 3

Question 1 (continued)

Text 2 — Cartoon

- (c) In what ways are ideas about discovery conveyed in the cartoon?

4

The author use of angry facial expression of the alien. This evokes a sense of spiritual discovery that alien feels angry that NASA is trying attack her house. This help people to understand that investigate is required before the tasks. The author also use of layout technique which the title is small and the image of the house is big. This suggest the image is easy to express the idea of spiritual discovery than the title.

Question 1 continues on page 4

Question 1 (continued)

Text 3 — Fiction extract

- (d) How does the narrator compare herself to her father's 'living wonders'? 2

Her father said that she is the wonder at the world which she is not. she is the normal person that not famous. ~~and~~ she is working at museum and her father has a lot of special skills.

- (e) What view of Mr Morris is conveyed by Alice Hoffman? 3

In the text, he is rich and he can get any things that he wants to have. His life has been enriched immeasurably by the novels. He finds his world is perfect without any lacks. He is kind of the person is brave and he can do anythings even it is dangerous as if he wants to do it.

- (f) How is language used to contrast Mr Morris's expectations and his discoveries? 4

The author use of repetition "He would" highlights he has a lot of choices before he is doing some things in the city. The author also use of metaphor "he was a monster" captures his feelings when he was in the jail. This express his angry and sadness to the city ~~the~~ New York.

Question 1 continues on page 5

Question 1 (continued)

- (g) Imagine an event where a person makes an unexpected rediscovery.

6

Write a diary entry which explores his or her response to this rediscovery.

Last week, my friend Jack has been made an unexpected rediscovery that makes me feel angry and regret. which is to buy the movie ticket. Jack has been discover that the tickets has to been book online for some specific movies and also I told him that already. ~~the~~ The day before the movie day, I called him and he said everythings are ready. Then, we went to the cinema on the next day which the staff told us we haven't brought the ticket for the movie. Then I was very angry and ask Jack and he told me he didn't click the button to finish the process of booking the ticket. His response for this unexpected rediscovery is no worries, we will coming for the movie next week. Haha!

End of Question 1