

Start here.

Interview

I: We have a special ~~just~~ guest today, a successful and involved community member - Jane Mackellar ~~the home~~ ~~Jane~~ to speak about the Living and Working in the Community and its role in her success. Welcome ~~Jane~~ Jane. Can we start ~~with the~~ it directly?

J: Thanks. Yes. The Living and Working Community had a great impact on my life. It ~~told~~ <sup>taught</sup> me how to communicate with others and involved in the community. There are a lot of obstacles on my way. Luckily, I overcame these difficulties.

I: Speak about the obstacles. What difficulties have you met?

J: At first, I was not good at English. However, I attended a lot of community activities and there are a lot of lovely people help me to improve my English. When my English became better, I thought it was about time to help others in the community.

I: What did you do to help others? Can you tell us?

J: I worked as a volunteer in the community. I went to the library to help people who have just come to Australia. I taught them English. People who have just come to Australia were lack of English and living experiences in Australia. They didn't know where to buy bus tickets or train tickets. Also, they lack of friends. So I decided to organize an organization <sup>called 'Foreign Sunshine'</sup> to help these people as more and more people came to Australia. In ~~the~~ <sup>this</sup> organization, people

~~are~~ ~~the~~ <sup>came</sup> from all of the world. Some ~~a~~ came from India. Some came from China. some came from Europe. ~~We~~ We sometimes organize a trip, so people can make friends during the trip. We also organize people to go to nursing home to care about the old people. ~~I thought~~ ~~people in this 'Foreign Sunshine'~~ We also taught some basic living knowledge of Australia. <sup>We can</sup> even help people to find a job. I thought people in this 'Foreign Sunshine' had a great time.

I: Yes, I see. It does ~~are~~ help them a lot. ~~definitely~~ ~~the~~ ~~take~~ ~~out~~ of What is the value for you to organize this organization in the community? and its also <sup>the</sup> ~~my~~ role in <sup>my success</sup>

J: For me the value is giving things to others. You would feel great ~~at~~ after you helping people. You would think you are valuable ~~and~~

I: It is amazing to help people. Unfortunately, we ran out of today, ~~then~~ Thank you for coming to our ~~community~~ radio to talk about the Living and Working in the ~~community~~ and <sup>its role in</sup> your success.

J: You're welcome. I really hope more and more people ~~can~~ ~~come~~ ~~to~~ ~~our~~ join our ~~community~~ 'Foreign Sunshine'. Thank you for having me.

You can work as volunteers to help others and you can also get help from others. It is a great organization in the community.

Additional writing space on back page.