

Question 1

a) The young couples reactions were captured by the dialogue conveying emotion and their reactions by quoting the couple in discovery for objects.

Question 1

b) The image represents an individual that values discovered objects as the image conveys object that have been discovered and hold to value the the individual. The individual portrayed in the image is in possession of discovered foreign objects conveying their value to the individual

Question 1

c) The poem conveys the personal response of the father about his discoveries as he told his son the story of the discovery of the blue butterfly as his father ~~when~~ went on a tangent to escape poverty

Question 1

d) portrayed in the text are the difficulties of discovering 'what is true and what is false' as a child checks the fact of story their grandmother had told them. The difficulties of discovering the truth was conveyed as the child went to great lengths checking for evidence among family histories. The child get questions if they want to discover 'what is true and what is false'

Question 1 (texts used - 2 & 4)

e) The significance of curiosity in the process of discovering is apparent in ~~the~~ ~~Job~~ Jacob Houbraken's painting of Albertus Seba as the image represents the emotion and value of the sense of discovery by the curiosity among the individual. The significance of curiosity is also conveyed in the non-fiction extract by Hilary ~~McPhee~~ McPhee as the significance of curiosity influence the judgement on a child to discover the truth behind their grandmothers stories. ~~It~~ ~~is~~ shown in both text contrasts the significance of curiosity in the process of discovering as the significance is high as curiosity sparks the journey of discoveries apparent in ~~the~~ Hilary McPhee's adopted from other people's words "My brain say I should discover what is true and what is false". Both texts represent the significance of curiosity in the process of discovery from discovering and collecting organisms to the truth behind a story.