

Text 1

a) The dialogue used by this couple have shown and emphasised their different reactions as well as perspective to the items they found. The girl was strict while the guy was amuse most of the time.

Text 2

b) In the image, you can see a man that looks like he was a person from a hundred or thousand years ago. It is evident in what he was wearing. The image strongly represent an individual who values discovered objects as it shows a man with a table in front of him that contains small objects as well as a book with a photos of animals and insects in it. He was also holding a jar with a snake inside illustrating that he could be a scientist before that tests animals. The background of the man in the image are jars that can also contain animals inside. The individual in the image have shown how he values he's discovered objects by putting them in the jar.

Text 3

c) The poem have conveyed thoroughly the personal response of the father to his discoveries by describing what he had seen ninety years ago when he walked three miles through the forest where he can see small insects as well as plants while he's on his way to school. The poem also conveyed the father's discovery of the blue eyed butterfly that shot him off on his tangent.

Text 4

d) The text portrays the difficulties of discerning 'what is true and what is false' as the narrator tells her story about finding out what is true, to know if her knowledge about her grandmother was true or false. As she tries to find the answer she discovers new things that can be an answer to her questions but eventually, she chose to just leave her grandmother and her stories as it is.

e) (Text 1 and Text 4)

Text 1 and text 4 have both represented the significance of curiosity in the process of discovering. Both texts have their own discoveries and what they did to discover these things. Text 1 is about discerning two different perspectives. Text 2 is discerning what is true and what is false.

Text 1 displayed a couple that emphasised their different reactions and perspective in every item they find in the wish. It shows that the woman was strict while the man was gone most of the time. The two tourists that was looking at them shows their disgusted feeling about the couple looking through the rubbish. This have shows the culture differences between them.

In text 4, a discovery about what is true and what is false. The narrator was eager to know if her knowledge about her grandmother was true or false. As she tries to find the answer she discovered lots of things that lead her to leave her grandmother and her stories as if it is.

In conclusion, these two texts displayed the significance as the characters of these two texts were curious about other people.

In the first text, the two tourists curiosity was shown when they saw the couple looking through the rubbish items. In the text 4, the narrator curiosity was illustrated when she tries to know what is true and what is false in the stories she knew about her grandmother.