

Go back to you came from ~~where you came from~~ the process of discovery involves uncovering what is hidden and reconsidering what is known. How is this perspective on discovery explored in your prescribed text and one other related text.

In Go back to where you came from 6 ordinary Australians go on a ~~a~~ refugees Journey but in reverse. the six participants are split into two groups of 3 each Ray, Rachel and Robert in ~~one~~ <sup>group one</sup> Gleny, Darren and Adam in the ~~other~~ <sup>Group two</sup>. The six start their Journey off in Australia where group two went to a apartment with 3 ~~men~~ male asylum seekers lived. the 3 told stories of their lives and got to know each other. Group one spend the night with the 'Masud: family' a family of refugees from Africa. there the Group learnt about the mother had 6 children | she lost in Africa due to not having money to save them.

the next day group 1 headed to Indonesia where they spent ~~the~~ a few days with a group of people I met ~~seen~~ in a small apartment block called the Chis. here those people work about 12 hours a day for free. Group two went to Israel where they met up with the family of ~~to~~ one of the men they seen in Australia
