

Start here.

Distinctively Visual

Distinctive images offer a variety of perspectives on the world. Compare how this is achieved in your prescribed text and One other related text of your own.

The shoe-horn sonata, directed by John Misto. Is a play that is written to ~~en~~ show the audience what it was like for Army nurses in prisoner of War Camps (POW). The two main characters are Bridie and Shella. Bridie was from the ~~Australian~~ Australian Army and Shella was from the British Army.

Throughout the play, ~~there have~~ images of the shoe-horn, the caramel, the choir and Rais Biscuits at the end off the play. The shoe-horn is the most important image of the whole play.

The little refugee is my related text. written by Anh Do. The ~~littles~~ refugee is about a family fleeing from there home due to the ~~two~~ war.

Throughout the book, is Anh Do's journey from his village to Australia. The family has to deal with pirates and the destructive ocean. The images in the book change colour depending on the event.

The shoe-horn, in the Shoe-horn Sonata is used as a life saving tool. ~~Bride~~ At the beginning when the Japanese bomb the boat, Bride and Sheila were floating in the water for hours and Sheila was so tired she kept falling asleep. Bridie knowing that if Sheila fell asleep she would drown so every-time she too closes her eyes Bridie would ~~hit~~ hit her with the shoe-horn. This image conveys the shoe-horns use to ~~save~~ ^{save} each other.

The little refugee doesn't have a significant item used through the book. ~~But~~ However the little refugee uses colour in the ~~to~~ pictures to create different emotions. For example; the first picture was full of oranges and yellows. This picture was of Anh Do's family undertaken everyday activities.

Additional writing space on back page.

Then the next picture ~~is~~ turns Black et grey, ~~the~~ illustrating the danger. This picture is of soldiers in action, ~~the~~ villages destroyed and civilians escaping for there lives. The use of changing the colour gives the ~~ready~~ reader more understanding of the emotional event that happened and that are still currently happening in some parts of the world.

The caramel in the shoe-horn sonata is shared between Bridie and Shelia on ~~the~~ christmas. The food the japanese gave them was terrible, so the caramel was the ^{height} of ~~luxury~~ ^{luxury}. The technique comparing the caramel to the food the soldiers gave them, show how bad the conditions were.

However in the little's refugee power is a main theme within this book. Two picture side by side ; The family on a ~~run~~ run downed boat in the middle of the ocean. This picture was in sepic then the next picture was of a pirate with his gun. This of course was in Black. The picture side by side gives ~~of~~ the reader a better understanding.

← Tick this box if you have continued this answer in another writing booklet.

Start here.

of the danger they are in. Also the pirates picture is bigger ~~that~~ than the boat. The pirates gun and hand tower over the boat, showing the power over the family.

These images offer a variety of ~~perceptions~~ perspectives on the world.