

---

Question 23 (8 marks)

Explain how government legislation and policies affect the Australian food industry.

8

The Australian food industry acts under the government legislation & policies as it is the government and the FSANZ that decide what is the safest & more environmentally friendly way for the food industry to operate.

2/5 ✓