
Question 23 (8 marks)

Explain how government legislation and policies affect the Australian food industry.

8

The national health & nutrition policy helps ~~the~~ people to choose the right foods e.g. more fruit & vegetables, fish and chicken. Less of the fatty foods. ~~The~~ This policy is also called Eat well Australia.

The other policy is the trade policy. This is to do with the imports & exports. The barrier being there of the tariffs. The imports are the variety goes up, the price goes down e.g. meats. Exports are greater market share their profit goes up and an example of this is seafood and meat

.....

.....

.....