

Question 22 (2 marks)

Define the right to self-determination.

2

The right to self-determination is when people do things like run a protest. Self-determination is always to do with more than one person. It is the right to protest against or for something.