

Question 23 (5 marks)

Outline how ONE human right has been legally recognised.

5

One human right which has been legally recognised is ~~the right to~~ universal suffrage also known as the right to vote. As a result of this legally recognised right it has given individuals a say in who runs their country. When one turns 18 in Australia they ~~are~~ <sup>gain the</sup> right to vote for several preferred leaders. If one is not in the country at voting time they may arrange to vote before they leave the country so that their vote is counted in the election process of choosing leaders. Universal suffrage has been recognised as a major human right legally in Australia.