

Question 23 (5 marks)

Outline how ONE human right has been legally recognised.

5

The right to Freedom of religion has been recognised both domestically and internationally. Domestically freedom of religion is entrenched into the Australian constitution. On an international scale various treaties and covenants have recognised this including the ICCPR and UDHR declaration of human rights. It is also part of the basis of international law. Therefore it can be seen that the right to freedom of religion is legally recognised by constitutional and international law.
