South Australia

South Australia has many activities and events and many things to do and places to visit.

South Australia has the Barossa valley and the Clare valley both wonderful to visit if you're a wine fanatic, or just love to look at the beautiful sites around them.

There are many running festivals and music festivals throughout the year, and many events you can attend.

You can fly in to Adelaide (adi) airport and explore from there, you can take train, bus or even a taxi to many of the ^{Attractions} locations, you can shop in Adelaide's malls.
